

WATERLESS GUNS. The most reliable. Winchester rifles. Bicknell's. Bolster & Co. Bargains in. Sweater, Shawls and Blankets. His Fall. On Ranges, Walker's, Sunny Side. Ladies. LESS GOODS. FINCE. Foot, Norway. DESIGNS. 143 Main St. NORWAY, MAINE. Stock. Razors. Knives. Scissors. Shears. K STORE. ED. Styles, at 76c. -vests and fine. -ants, in White. -gments. ch,

Job Printing. You are invited to send us the Local News. Oxford City Advertiser. NUMBER 48. OCTOBER 25, 1895, NORWAY AND SOUTH PARIS, MAINE. The Work of Building Commission. The putting in of the foundation for the new school house was commenced on Tuesday morning. The work of the building commission is progressing rapidly. The foundation is being laid on a solid base of concrete. The walls are being built of brick. The roof is being covered with shingles. The interior is being finished with plaster. The school house will be ready for occupancy in the spring of 1896.

Subscription Rates. 3 months, $2.00. 6 months, $3.50. 12 months, $6.00. CASH IN ADVANCE. Address: Advertiser, Norway, Me. VOLUME XXVII. Frank Shiles went to Buckfield with a load of goods, Saturday. Simon Brown, the old time engineer at the mill, is back in town. Mr. Brown has had charge of the engine of the present mill and the two previous ones that were burnt for the last thirty-six years, and we think he deserves to be retained on half pay. Mrs. M. D. Grover, who has been confined to her room for some weeks, is now getting over the successful treatment of her physician. Rumor has it that Mr. Healdson of Albany, a brother of Mrs. Charles Anderson, will move to her place and take charge of her farm, shortly. Mr. Hodgson, who has been stopping at her son's, George Bryan's, has returned to Mechanic Falls. Mrs. M. D. Grover, who has been confined to her room for some weeks, is now getting over the successful treatment of her physician. Rumor has it that Mr. Healdson of Albany, a brother of Mrs. Charles Anderson, will move to her place and take charge of her farm, shortly. Mr. Hodgson, who has been stopping at her son's, George Bryan's, has returned to Mechanic Falls. Mrs. M. D. Grover, who has been confined to her room for some weeks, is now getting over the successful treatment of her physician. Rumor has it that Mr. Healdson of Albany, a brother of Mrs. Charles Anderson, will move to her place and take charge of her farm, shortly. Mr. Hodgson, who has been stopping at her son's, George Bryan's, has returned to Mechanic Falls.

This image shows a vertical strip of a document page. On the left side, there is a dark, textured binding or edge. The main part of the strip is a white page. Faint, illegible text is visible across the page, appearing as light gray smudges. Near the bottom of the strip, there is a small, dark rectangular mark or stamp. The overall image is very low resolution and appears to be a scan of a physical document.

